

We must forgive earth for not being heaven

I forgive earth for not being heaven time for not being eternity faith for not being certainty dust for not being glory

I forgive beginnings for not being ends questions for not being answers confusion for not being understanding darkness for not being light

I forgive mind for not being heart man for not being woman passion for not being love conflict for not being peace evil for not being good you for not being me

I forgive

and holding a mirror to the prayer I start again

I forgive forgiveness never ending.
